Dear

On behalf of the more than 189,000 registered dental hygienists in the United States, it is our distinct honor and privilege to invite you to attend the American Dental Hygienists' Association 2021 Annual Conference, June 18th – 20th in Phoenix, AZ, USA.

Oral health is not confined to any one nation's borders; rather, it is up to each of us – as leaders of our profession – to come together and rally around the unlimited opportunities for growth and advancement the future will undoubtedly bring.

As we transition our profession in a new century of service, we look forward to welcoming you to continue to celebrate the dental hygiene profession's unlimited future with ADHA in Phoenix, AZ, USA.

Most Sincerely,

Lisa J. Moravec
